The lunar new year of the Green Wood Ram brings camaraderie and growth. Come celebrate community vitality and cultural connections in this season of renewal –

- Listen to stories from different cultural perspectives on the early Chinese immigrants, including from Jack London, Robert Louis Stevenson, and Italian-American fishermen in San Francisco, and hear CW stories about SF maritime history.
- Enjoy slam poet Jason Bayani's riveting performance
- Get inspired by new year stories and stories of renewal in our premiere Community StoryShare*, and bring your story to share on the theme of cultivating beginnings and community renewal.

* StoryShare Open to all, PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED – for info email: stories@chinese-whispers.org with "STORYSHARE" in the subject line
